Russian History Class at ECC

El Camino College will offer a new course in Russian History during the fall semester, announced college officials this week.

The class, "History of Russia," will be taught by William S. Holly, who has traveled extensively in Europe, including Iron Curtain countries.

Armed Forces

Serving with the Third Battalion, Tenth Marine Regiment at Camp Lejeune, N.C., is Marine Pfc. Johnny R. Westbrook.

The battalion completed annual marksmanship training, July 14, firing the M-1 rifle.

The training is part of the Corps' program to ensure the continued skill of its infantrymen.

is Johnny R. Coberly, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Coberly, 3307 Newton St.

The ship, which arrived in the colony July 27, after participating in training exercises with the powerful Seventh Fleet, will stay in the colorful port for a short period of rest and recreation for the crew.

Completing the Junior Platoon Leaders Class, July 22, at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va., was Marine Reservist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Jaakola, 16808 Kintin Ave.

Twice annually, six-week classes are conducted during the summer months. The courses in leadership, physical fitness and military subjects are designed to prepare young men from colleges and universities throughout the nation for commissions in the Marine Corps.

Those completing the course upon graduation from college are commissioned second lieutenants and sent to a 26-week course at Officers Basic School, Quantico.

Storm Drain Contracts

Contracts for the construction of the East Storm Drain project 587 have been let to the Norco Construction Co.

Their bid of $586,726.80 was $52,422.70 less than the County engineer's estimate.

Construction will probably begin late in September and will require about 11 months for completion. The project is designed to alleviate floods in the vicinity of Crenshaw Blvd. and 190th St.

The storm project will be built in two lines. Line A will begin at 183th St. and Crenshaw Blvd. and extend south on Crenshaw to 190th St., then east to Van Ness and south to Del Amo Blvd.

Line B will begin at an existing drain west of Western Ave. and extend northwest across Torrance Blvd. approx-
